

DIRECTIONS FROM NARITA AIRPORT TO ICU

As instructed, it is the fastest and most direct way to take the JR Narita Express (N'EX) to get to Tokyo from Narita Airport. Either you arrive at Terminal 1 or 2, both have N'EX stations directly connected from the Arrival lobby. Ticket Gates of JR Lines and N'EX stations are each located at B1 Floor at the airport, and platforms on B2 Levels.

To Musashisakai Station via Tokyo/Shinjuku Fee: 3,550 yen

JR Narita Airport Station

*If you are at Terminal 1, Narita Airport Station” of N'EX is the closest station for you. For example, if you flew in with United, Singapore or Delta Airlines, it is most likely that you are at Terminal 1.

::See below link for the complete list of Airlines at Terminal 1

2 min.

JR Airport Terminal 2 Station

About
55 min.

*Even though there is a free shuttle service between 1st and the 2nd Terminals of Narita Airport, you do not need to worry about taking one. Every N'EX stops at both “Narita Airport Station” and “Airport Terminal 2 Station”. Examples of the airlines arrive at Terminal 2 are China, American and Japan Airlines. See the link below for a complete list.

JR Tokyo Station (東京駅)

*Since Tokyo Station is the starting station for Chuo Line 中央線, it is strongly recommended that you transfer at this station. Because of this, the train is less crowded (really!!).

About
40 min.

After getting off the N'EX at Tokyo Station, go up the stairs and look for platforms 1 and 2. It's easier to find Chuo Line when you look for a color of orange, which is a symbolic color for Chuo Line.

Take ONLY “Rapid 快速” trains since others won't stop at Musashisakai Station.
