However, please keep this direction with you in case of emergency- like getting lost on the way!! We'll take JR Chuo-line for Tokyo from track #1. JR Chuo-line runs every 5 minutes, but also is well-known for delays caused by unexpected accidents. The ride to Tokyo station takes around 36-38 minutes. Please leave Musashisakai earlier than you estimate so that it reduces the risk of missing Shinkansen at Tokyo station and give yourself enough time.
	 Railway ticket (Jyosha-ken 乗車券)   Limited express ticket (Tokkyu-ken 特急券)

Tokyo Station

The JR Chuo train from Musashisakai will arrive at track #1 or 2 of Tokyo Station. In order to transfer to Tokaido/Sanyo Shinkansen “Nozomi-のぞみ” (Although other Shinkansen such as “Hikari” or “Kodama” stops at Kyoto, Nozomi is the fastest to arrive: See the timetable attached), go downstairs and move on to either Yaesu North/Central/South Shinkansen Ticket Gates as shown in the map. The Shinkansen heading to Kyoto will leave from platform # 14 to 19. Refer to the electronic bulletin board.

Kyoto Station is the 4th stop from Tokyo Station by Shinkansen Nozomi:
Tokyo---Shinagawa---Shinyokohama---Nagoya---Kyoto
